

TRAVIS KALMUCK

What is your role at Taureau Group, and how long have you been here?

I started three months ago as a senior analyst. My role includes supporting all aspects of the M&A process. I have been involved in pitches, conducting industry research, financial analysis and marketing.

Before working at Taureau Group, what was the most interesting job you've ever had? I worked in a call center during college. It mainly consisted of calling people who generally didn't want to hear from me, so it was an interesting job to say the least.

What has been your most memorable deal at Taureau Group?

All the deals I have had the opportunity to work on since starting have been memorable. The most memorable aspect has been listening to the stories of how the owners we work with have built and grown their businesses.

Describe the culture at Taureau Group.

The culture at Taureau Group is very team-oriented and collaborative. I like that the group has a very diverse skill set and everyone brings something unique to the table. Everyone enjoys coming into the office and working together.

What's something about yourself that may surprise us?

I enjoy cooking and do almost all the cooking in my household. I enjoy watching cooking shows and learning new ways to cook and trying new recipes.

Where is your hometown?

Naperville, Illinois

What is your favorite book, movie and type of music?

My favorite movie is The Count of Monte Cristo, and I generally gravitate towards country music; my favorite artist being Eric Church.

What is your favorite quote? "Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail."
- Ralph Waldo Emerson

What do you like to do in your free time?

In my free time, I like to spend time with family and friends. I like to be outside as much as possible hiking, golfing, playing soccer, or going to the dog park.
